. . . share in unusual profit. Feature this New ★ Climber, THE SPANISH BEAUTY, Mme. Gregoire Staechelin

Mark yourself a leader. Join in the cream-profits that new things bring. Never before has a Rose made such a hit as STAECHELIN. Never has a climber won so many medals, such universal acclaim. Outstanding of its prizes is the John Cook Medal (1930) "for best Rose introduced past 3 years."

One of the first climbers to bloom, it captures the eye with bright bouquets on 12 to 15-inch stems; a background of ample, leathery foliage. STAECHELIN has passed seven years' test of hardiness. It is abundantly satisfactory wherever the true climbers are used effectively.
